

THE WATER CASTLE OF VILLIERS-LE-BEL (95), FRANCE

PETITE ARCHITECTURE CITOYENNE COMPETITION

CLIENT	CAUE 95
LOCATION	Villiers-le-Bel, France
PROJECT	Petite architecture citoyenne Competition
MISSION	Architecture HQE® Competition
CONSULTANT	AR ARCHITECTES
AREA	100m <sup>2</sup>
COST	100k € HT
DATE	2009

Section

Perspectives of the project in its close environment

The vertical 3-storey sculpture is a symbol of assemblance, of mutual aid and of ecology : It offers a view of the city, holds a meeting space for different associations of the neighborhood, of the schools and proposes a waste-management system by a common collect for surrounding buildings.

The accompanied public garden is supplied by the water collected in the rainwater resevoire at the top of the structure.

